Dear Pastor and Praying Church Friends,

I hope you had a wonderful Christmas season! We have been truly blessed by this very busy time of the year. We were able to put on a play at our church as an outreach. Jack did a great job as the "Head Wise Man". It was a very simple play, but we had several visitors (mostly grandparents) who came and were able to hear the salvation message through the Christmas story.

In January, one of our faithful members passed away. He was a 91-year-old Korean War veteran named Bro. Johnny. He told me many times that at his funeral a lot of his unsaved friends would have to come and listen to the preaching. He made me promise to preach the gospel so clearly, they could not deny it. I did preach the gospel. I had very much liberty to preach and was able to preach for a full hour. I gave an invitation at the end, and at least 10 people raised their hands to say they accepted Christ as their Saviour. Bro Johnny was buried in Puerto Rico's National Veteran's Cemetery with full military honors. It was quite a bitter-sweet moment. Please pray for his widow, Tonya, as she is having health problems but staying faithful to church.

We were not sure if we would be able to have a Bible handout this month because it was raining all morning the day we had scheduled. It started to clear, so we set up the tent and got ready. As soon as the tent was up, we were caught in a downpour. We looked pretty silly sitting under a tent in the parking lot of Walmart. But we sang hymns and waited for the sun. When it stopped raining, we decided to try for a little bit at least. God quickly sent us everyone that had an open heart. In about an hour, we had given 14 Bibles and saw 4 people saved! As soon as we had taken down the tent, it started raining again for the rest of the day. We serve a God who still is Master of the rain.

I want to take a moment to say thank you for your faithful support. As we looked back on our year, it was extremely eventful. To be able to celebrate Christmas with a baby again with all the blessings that we have was truly remarkable. We know this is because of your faithfulness to pray and support us. We are truly blessed. Thank you again.

In Christ,

Jerrod, Bernadette, Jack, and John Montgomery
